

4.15 CHILD PROTECTION

June 2019

Rationale

Glenvale School is committed to fulfilling its duty of care to all students and specifically students under the age of 16 in relation to the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic), which was amended in 2014 to include offences of: (i) failing to disclose a sexual offence, (ii) grooming for sexual conduct, and (iii) failing to protect a child from sexual offence. Glenvale School is also committed to fully complying with Ministerial order 870 – Child Safe Standards.

Aims

Through the application of this policy, we at Glenvale School aim to:

- Ensure all reasonable steps are taken so that students are safe from sexual abuse and that they feel safe at all times
- Enable the governing body members, all persons in positions of authority, care or supervision, all employees of the school and where applicable, students of 18 years or over to understand their role and responsibility in protecting the safety and wellbeing of children and young people under the age of 16 in accordance with the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic).

That is, to ensure individuals associated with the school who have the power or responsibility to reduce or remove substantial risk, take steps to reduce or remove any substantial risk that a student under 16 years of age will become the victim of sexual assault, including the recognition of 'grooming'.

- Ensure all members of the school community aged 18 and over understand their reporting obligations in accordance with the Crimes Amendment (Protection of Children) Act 2014 (Vic).

That is, to ensure all members of the school community aged 18 and over (who are not Mandatory Notifiers) who form a reasonable belief that a sexual offence has been committed by an adult against a child under 16, report that information to the police.

This policy is underpinned by the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic).

Implementation

The Principal will:

- Ensure that all staff members, volunteers, students aged 18 and over, school board members and the school parent community are aware of the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic) Policy and have access to a copy of the policy

- Ensure that all adults within the school community are aware of their obligation to report suspected sexual abuse of a child under 16 years to the police
- Provide support for staff in undertaking their responsibility in this area

All staff members will:

- Be aware of the school's Crimes Act 1958 (Vic) policy and the school's Child Protection (4.15) and Mandatory Notification Policy (4.14)
- Report any reasonable belief of child sexual abuse to the police or fulfil their obligation as Mandatory Notifiers
- Provide an education environment that is supportive of all children's emotional and physical safety

Parents/Caregivers/Volunteers/Students 18 and over will:

- Be aware of the school's Crimes Act 1958 (Vic) policy and the school's Child Protection (4.15) and Mandatory Notification Policy (4.14)
- Understand their obligations to report any reasonable belief of child sexual abuse to the police

Specific Offences

1.Failure to Disclose

Reporting child sexual abuse is a community-wide responsibility. The failure to disclose offence imposes a clear legal duty upon all adults aged 18 and over to report information about child sexual abuse to police. Fulfilling the roles and responsibilities contained in the school's policies and procedures for responding to allegations of suspected child abuse does not displace or discharge any their obligations that arise if a person reasonably believes that a child is at risk of child abuse.

1.1 Definition

Under section 327 of the Crimes Act, any person (including any staff member) of or over the age of 18 years who forms a reasonable belief that a sexual offence has been committed in Victoria by an adult against a child under 16 years of age must disclose that information to police, as soon as it is practicable to do so. Failure to disclose the information to police is a criminal offence, except in limited circumstances such as where the information has already been reported to DHA Child Protection.

The offence applies to all adults in Victoria, not just professionals who work with children.

1.2 Forming a 'Reasonable Belief'

A 'reasonable belief' or a 'belief on reasonable grounds' is not the same as having proof but is more than a mere rumour or speculation.

A 'reasonable belief' is formed if a reasonable person in the same position would have formed the belief on the same grounds. For example, a 'reasonable belief' might be formed if:

- A child states that they have been sexually abused
- A child states that they know someone who has been sexually abused (sometimes the child may be talking about themselves)
- Someone who knows a child states that the child has been sexually abused
- Professional observations of the child's behaviour or development leads a professional to form a belief that the child has been sexually abused or is likely to be abused
- Signs of abuse lead to a belief that the child has been sexually abused

1.3 Procedure

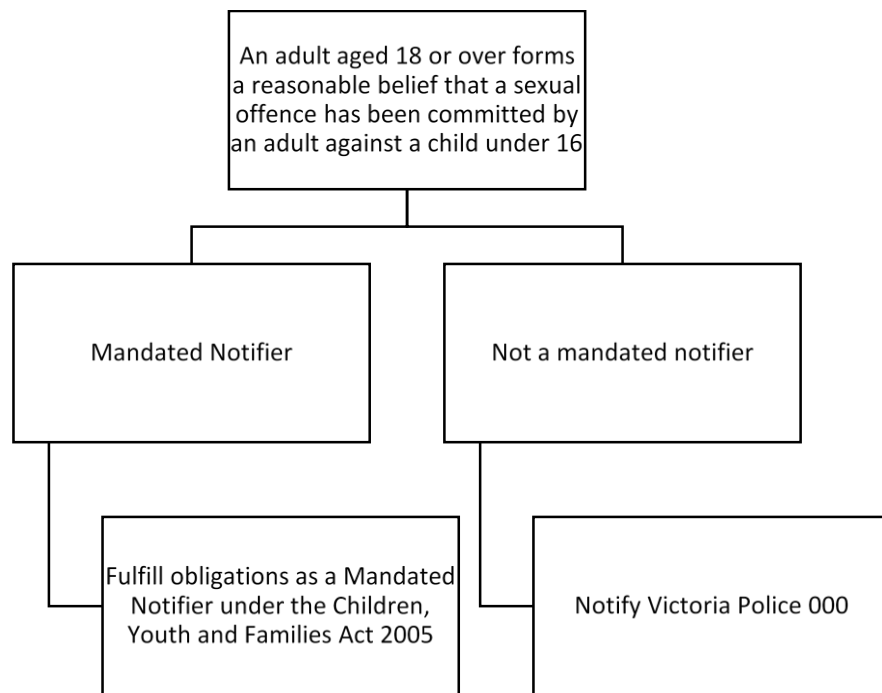

Any adult aged 18 or over who forms a reasonable belief that a sexual offence has been committed in Victoria by an adults against a child under 16 must report that information to Victoria Police by dialling 000 (or otherwise to a member of the Police Force of Victoria).

An adult will not be guilty of an offence if they do not report in the following circumstances:

- The victim is 16 years of age or older and does not have an intellectual disability that limits his/her capacity to make an informed decision; and he/she does not want the information reported to the police
- The victim has disclosed the information in confidence in the course of therapeutic relationship with you as a registered medical practitioner or counsellor
- The victim turned 16 years of age before 27 October 2014

Reasonable excuses for failing to comply with the requirement include:

- A reasonable belief that the information has already been reported to police or DHS Child Protection disclosing all of the information
- A reasonable fear that the disclosure will place someone (other than the alleged perpetrator) at risk of harm

A person in the school may have a mandatory reporting obligation under the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005. In summary, this obligation requires teachers to report concerns about child welfare to child protection authorities within the Department of Human Services (DHS). DHS passes all allegations of child sexual abuse to police so it will be a reasonable excuse for not reporting to police if a person has made a report of DHS or reasonably believes a report has been made to DHS. (Please refer to the school's Child Protection – Mandatory Notification Policy).

2. Grooming

Section 49B of the Crimes Act relates to the offence of "Grooming for sexual conduct with a child under the age of 16 years." The offence targets predatory conduct designed to facilitate later sexual activity. The offence can be committed by any person aged 18 years or over.

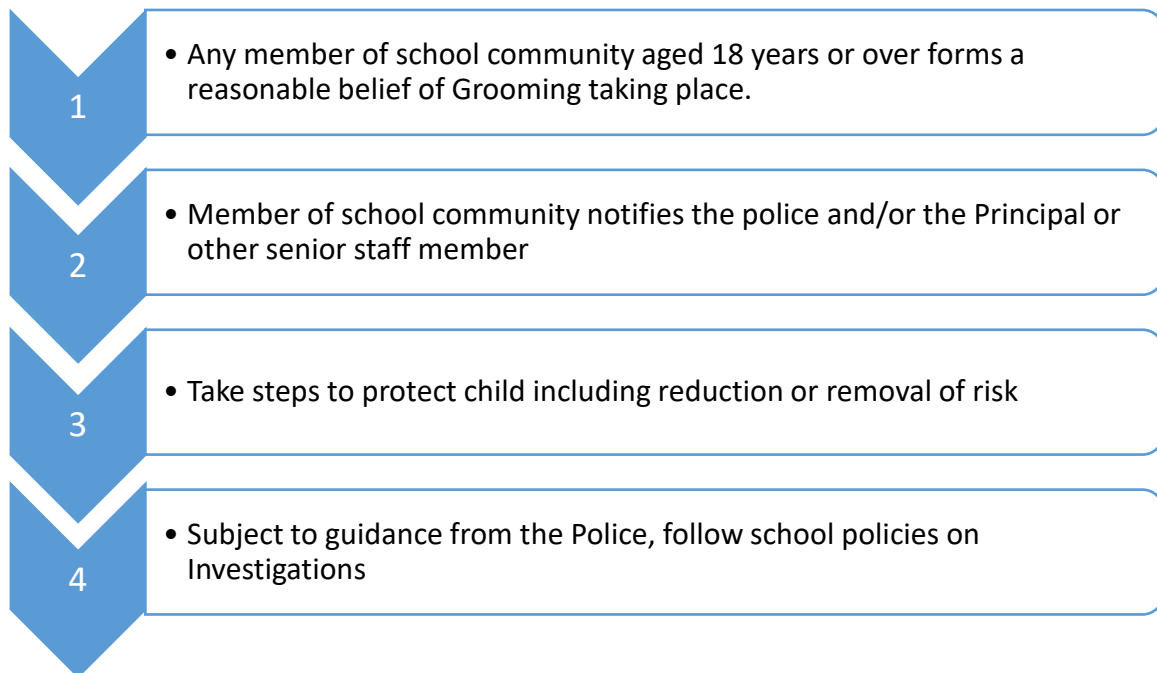

2.1 Definition

- The offence of grooming concerns predatory conduct undertaken to prepare a child for sexual activity at a later time
- The offence applies where an adult communicates, by words or conduct, with a child under the age of 16 years or with a person who has care, supervision or authority for the child with the intention of facilitating the child's engagement in or involvement in sexual conduct, whether the groomer or another adult
- Grooming does not necessarily involve any sexual activity or even discussion of sexual activity – for example, it may only involve establishing a relationship with the child, parent or carer for the purpose of facilitating sexual activity at a later time
- The sexual conduct must constitute an indictable sexual offence. This includes offences such as sexual penetration of a child, indecent assault and indecent act in the presence of a child. It does not include summary offences, such as 'upskirting' and indecent behaviour in public.

2.2 Procedure

Should any member of the school community aged 18 and over become aware of grooming behaviour they should notify the police and/or the Principal immediately.

It is the responsibility of the Principal and/or others associated with the school with the authority or responsibility, to take action upon becoming aware of grooming behaviour to protect (so as to reduce or remove substantial risk) in accordance with the 'failure to protect' offence (see below).

3.Failure to Protect Offence

Section 49C of the Crimes Act will make it a criminal offence in Victoria for a person in authority to fail to protect a child under the age of 16 from criminal sexual abuse. This applies where there is substantial risk that a child under the care, supervision or authority of an organisation (including schools) will become a victim of a sexual offence by an adult associated with the school. The person in a position of authority may be guilty of an offence if they know of the risk of abuse and have the power or responsibility to reduce or remove the risk, but negligently fail to do so.

3.1 Definition

If a person associated with the school who by reason of their position has the power or responsibility to reduce or remove substantial risk that a child will become a victim of a sexual offence committed by an adult associated with the school, they must not negligently fail to reduce or remove the risk.

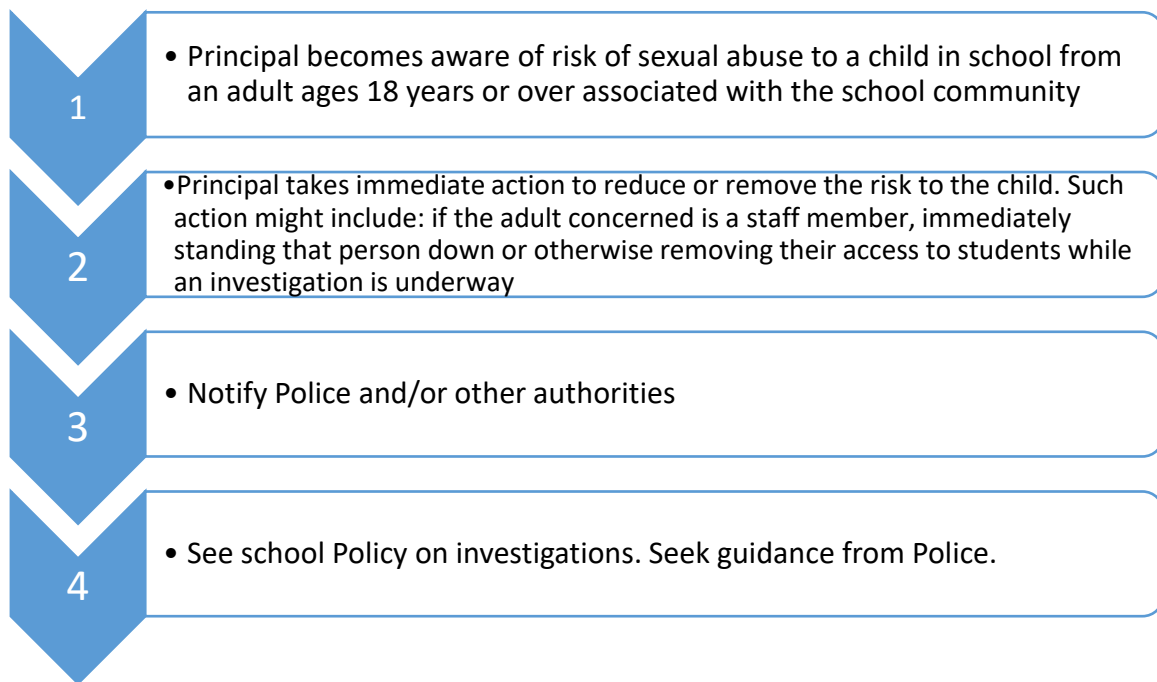

That is, as soon as a person in authority becomes aware of a risk of child sexual abuse, they will be under a duty to take steps to remove or reduce that risk.

A person who has the power or responsibility to reduce or remove a risk will include the Principal, governing body members and senior staff, as well as teachers by virtue of their responsibilities. For the avoidance of doubt, any member of staff or person associated with the school who knows of a substantial risk that a child will become a victim of a sexual offence should notify the Principal as soon as is reasonably practicable.

3.2 Procedure

When aware of a substantial risk of criminal sexual abuse to a child in the school from an adult aged 18 or over associated with the school, the Principal will act to reduce or remove the risk. The person will be removed from any child-related role pending an investigation.
